BACKGROUND

The India Canada Association of Saskatchewan Inc.,(I.C.A.), was founded in 1975. The I.C.A. based in Regina, draws its membership from Indo-Canadians and others interested in the preservation of East Indian Culture.

OBJECTIVES

- To promote social, cultural and educational understanding between members of the East Indian Community and other resident of Canada.
- To promote and retain language and cultural traditions of the member community as essential components of multiculturalism.
- To act as a representative body of the East Indian Community and to participate in all activities that are of interest to the community.
- To co-operate with other agencies and organizations sharing a common vision and philosophy.
- To promote mutual respect, awareness and understanding in the community within the multicultural framework of Canadian Society.

VISION STATEMENT

"To share the immensity of Indian culture for the promotion of peaceful co-existence for all humanity."
